Giuseppe Gambi

Biography

Giuseppe Gambi is a young but already established Neapolitan tenor, due to his elegant vocal timbre, charisma and stage presence. He graduated from the Avellino Conservatory and completed his studies with a second degree in opera singing.

He won first prize as a tenor in “Campi Flegrei National Competition” and in “International Competition Returns Winner”.

In Italy he is the protagonist of shows and concerts in theatres and in the most famous locations like Capri, Ischia, Venice, Taormina, Sanremo and Costa Smeralda in Sardinia.

For his artistic activity he won the “Eur Mediterraneo Award” in Rome and “The City of Partenope Award”, in Naples.

In his show Giuseppe Gambi sings great Italian and Neapolitan song, the most famous International hits and some romances of the most important operas.

Giuseppe Gambi is the protagonist of concerts and shows in Bulgaria, (Sofia and Plovdiv), Slovakia, (Prague), Holland, (Amsterdam), Poland, (Krakow), France, (Nice), Principality of Monaco, (Montecarlo), Russia, (St. Petersburg), USA, (New York), England, (London), Egypt, (Cairo), Argentina, (Buenos Aires).

Giuseppe Gambi has recorded 5 CDs, "I love life", "Italia Patria mia", "Passione Napoletana", "Love will win", "Tribute to Caruso", "Merry Christmas" and has participated in the most important television programs of Rai Radio Italian Television and Mediaset.

A complete crossover artist, his repertoire ranges with great ease from the most beautiful and famous pop songs in the world, to the immortal romances of operas. He was also the protagonist of "Madama Butterfly" in the part of Pinkerton.

The Luciano Pavarotti Foundation, directed by the wife of the great tenor Nicoletta Mantovani, invited Giuseppe Gambi to the event to commemorate the extraordinary tenor who passed away. Gambi performed in front of a multitude of audiences of over 50,000 people, achieving incredible success. The event was filmed live by Rai Uno and presented by Milly Carlucci.

Giuseppe Gambi during the lockdown, caused by the terrible pandemic of Covid 19, was one of the most followed artists on the Web, with the video-message of hope, recorded from the balcony of his house in Naples, with the famous romance "Nessun dorma".
